At Western Plains Medical Complex, our goal is to deliver the highest quality healthcare available in this region as we seek to make our community healthier.

—Jerry Dooley, Interim CEO

At Western Plains Medical Complex, we spent 2016 exploring ways to advance our mission of making the communities of Southwest Kansas healthier. And by focusing our efforts on creating a place where people choose to come for healthcare, physicians want to practice and employees want to work, our more than 40-year legacy of caring for our communities is stronger than ever.

Inviting the best physicians into our communities and supporting them is one of the most important drivers of our ability to offer the best possible healthcare to the region. During the past year, WPMC added 16 new physicians in a number of service lines, including diagnostic radiology, hospital medicine, radiation oncology, emergency medicine and obstetrics and gynecology.

And while delivering high quality patient care close to home is the single most important contribution we make, there are many other ways we're making a positive impact in our communities.

In creating excellent workplaces for our 260 employees, we made $6,155,157 in capital improvements in 2016, including our new Family Birth Center, which enables us to better meet the growing labor and delivery needs of our communities for years to come; and we managed and distributed an annual payroll of $18,433,743.

We are proud to take a leadership role in our communities and are committed to delivering needed healthcare to everyone, regardless of their ability to pay. In fact, in 2016 we donated more than $4.58 million in healthcare services to those in need.

We are also committed to ensuring fiscal responsibility – both at the hospital and in the community. In 2016, we paid a total of $765,200 in taxes, as well as provided numerous sponsorships and donations to local organizations.
